The Markets.

MOBILE, July 28.—The cotton market is improving. Middling 37 and 38.
In New Orleans, middling 42. Gold 52.

The Shenandoah.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The whaling bark Milo has arrived, in twenty-eight days from the Arctic, with the crews of several whalers destroyed by the pirate Shenandoah, last month. The whalers Edward Casey, Hector, Abigail, Euphrates, William Thompson, Thornton, Jirch Swift, and the Susan and Abigail were captured and most of them burned. The Milo was bonded for the purpose of taking off the crews.

The Shenandoah was continuing the destruction of the whalers, and would probably destroy another fleet numbering sixty vessels.

The Shenandoah coaled last at Melbourne. She was manned by English and Scotch sailors. Some of the captured whaler men joined her.

The Civil Officers of Charleston District.

The Charleston Courier publishes the following letter from Gen. Bennett, commanding that post, addressed to John E. Carew, Esq., in reply to an application made to the military authorities for the surrender of the jail. Mr. Carew is Sheriff of the District, and proposed to resume his official functions under the recent proclamation of Gov. Perry. We publish the letter of Gen. Bennett, as indicating the course of the authorities in similar cases:

HEADQ'S CITY OF CHARLESTON, Charleston, S. C., July 31, 1865.

J. E. Carew, Esq.,—Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of this date, informing me that, in compliance with the proclamation of Gov. Perry, you desire to resume your duties as sheriff, and take possession of the jail, now in the hands of the United States military authorities.

I would respectfully inform you that any attempt upon your part to exercise the functions of sheriff would directly conflict with my duties under existing orders as military commandant of this city and sub-district.

The State is, at present, under martial law, and the proclamation which appears in the Courier, of July 31st, purporting to be issued by Governor Perry, but which may be, like many newspaper reports, erroneous or unauthorized, can have no influence upon or control over my actions, except I am directed to recognize it by my superior officers, under whose immediate orders I am serving. Should the proclamation referred to above prove genuine, and its policy sustained at Washington, I have no doubt that the military authorities in this Department will receive instructions for their guidance in the effort which the Government is making to restore the State to civil rule.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,
W. T. BENNETT,
Brevet Brigadier-General,
Com'd'g Post First Sub-District.

P. S.—I enclose a copy of an extract of an order issued February 19, 1865, declaring the city under martial law, and which order I have received no instructions to revoke.

W. T. BENNETT,
Brevet Brigadier-General Com'd'g.

HEADQ'S UNITED STATES FORCES, Charleston, S. C., Feb. 19, 1865.

[EXTRACT.]
General Order No. 1.

Charleston is declared to be under martial law. All functions heretofore exercised by the Mayor, Commonality, Civil and Criminal Courts, police authorities and local governments, are now suspended.

A. G. BENNETT,
Lt. Col. 21st U. S. C. T.,
Commanding City of Charleston and P. M. Northern Dist. Dep. South.
Official: CHARLES G. CHIPMAN,
Capt. 54th Mass. Vols. and A. A. G.

It is understood that the indictments found under the instructions of Judge Underwood, against Lee and other prominent Southerners, will be quashed by order of the President, who will dispose of each case as he proposes to do in regard to other leading Southern men, by affixing such conditions to their pardon and inflicting such penalties as he judges best.

The report of the Auditor of Kentucky gives the aggregate population of that State at 1,145,668, as follows: Whites, 919,517; owners of slaves, 36,140; slaves, 225,488; free colored, 10,687.

The London News publishes a table showing that over $65,000,000 were sent by emigrants coming to this country to their friends in Great Britain between the years 1848 and 1864. This was the real emigrant aid fund. During the four years of the war, over $8,000,000 were thus sent to that country.

The newspapers of Honolulu are discussing the question whether the vernacular of those islands should be discarded in the national schools for the English language. Should the project be carried out, as is probable, the Hawaiian language will become extinct with a generation or two.

Advices from Hayti, received by way of Nassau, state that the revolutionary war in the republic is still going on, and that the rebels profess themselves willing to be buried under the ashes of their towns, rather than longer governed by President Geffard.

About $50,000 worth of mutilated and worn-out fractional currency is replaced by new issues, at Washington, daily. The total amount now in circulation is upward of $21,000,000. No more of the three cent denomination will be issued.

The Quebec correspondent of the Toronto Globe writes that operations to erect fortifications at Quebec are to be pushed forward. At Point Levi, four forts, each to hold about 3,000 men, and ditches several miles long, are to be made.

An opera buffa, in two acts, by Mendelssohn will shortly be produced at the Theatre Lyrique in Paris. It is said this is the only work of the kind ever written by the illustrious composer.

Papers sometimes get taken in by acrostics. A radical journal in England lately published some very complimentary lines on Mr. Rebow, its candidate for Parliament, the first letters of the lines of which read "Rebow is a muf.".

It is said that some new value has been discovered in coal ashes. A collector has paid $9,000 for the privilege of collecting them in a single district in Manchester, England.
